Third Year Project Presentation: Agreed Marks

Student:

Staff Markers:

Percentage Mark:

Criteria	Mark	Comments
Project Presentation: 100% To Consider: Introduction: • Title and name on first slide • Student introduce self • Level of detail appropriate • Good coverage of background issues • Project's goals explained • Problem is being solved • Work placed in context Achievements: • Adequate discussion of planning • Clarity of explanation of the deliverables & what has been achieved • how will the project be evaluated? Presentation Quality: • Clear Speaking • Did the student make eye contact with the audience? • Student familiar with presentation (no excessive use of notes, screen) • Purpose clearly stated at beginning • Organization throughout the presentation is made clear with slides and with language cues Visual aids: • Well-prepared, interesting, easy-to-read slides (free of clutter and irrelevant detail) that support the content of the presentation and easy to understand key points. • Appropriate text size and formatting, good visual appeal with varied representations (text, diagrams etc.) • No unfamiliar acronyms, errors in grammar, spelling etc Timing: • Was the presentation well-paced and did it finish on time? • Number of slides appropriate for time Questions: • Questions anticipated • Clarification sought for ambiguous or unclear questions • Clear answers; good suggestions even if answers unknown		